PARENT QUESTIONNAIRE:

It is important that families coming to BCS have a universal commitment to Jesus Christ as well as the basic biblical standards as described in God’s Word. This preliminary review is designed to give you and your student an opportunity to share with us your faith in Jesus Christ and to give us a sense of your family’s values and standards. Please be thorough in your answers since the content is very important in the evaluation process. Appeals of the decision may be made through the administrator’s office. The administrator will place the appeal before the proper authorities.

Please give us your spiritual history. Include your salvation experience, spiritual growth, and where you are currently in your spiritual life.
